PDS Launches UNIX Offerings for HP

OCONOMOWOC, WI (July 7, 2003) – PDS is now certified by Hewlett Packard (HP) to offer UNIX-based enterprise solutions. As a Platinum partner, PDS now offers pre-sales analysis, sales, implementation and services for HP-UX enterprise servers. PDS can either augment a company's existing capabilities or deliver a complete solution.

PDS assesses how well a company's existing infrastructure meets its technology needs and supports future growth. PDS technical pre-sales analysis, for HP enterprise requirements, provides competitively priced, short-duration services that significantly improve implementation and ongoing IT infrastructure management. Following are PDS's primary HP-UX offerings:

- Infrastructure Resource Assessment
 - Server, Network, Storage
 - Hardware Roadmaps
- Software Assessment
 - Applications, Databases
- Service Level Agreement (SLA) Assessment
 - High Availability
 - Disaster Recovery
- Cost Justification
- Alternative Analysis

PDS can fully implement the HP enterprise solutions we design. PDS, your local HP provider, can bring in the best people with in-depth experience to meet your enterprise requirements. A collaborative approach and our sense of accountability will allow PDS to build a partnership to implement solutions that provide lasting business value. This ability frees companies from the need to find and retain trained resources by leveraging the scope and experience of PDS in the following areas:

- Server Design & Configuration
- Server Implementation
- Enterprise Server Sales:
 - PA-RISC
 - Itanium
- Server Upgrades
- Server Migrations
- Server Consolidation
- HP-UX Administration
- HP-UX Patch Management
- HP-UX Kernel & Performance Tuning
- Enterprise Storage
- SAN Solutions
- Backup & Recovery
- Knowledge Transfer/Mentoring
- Documentation
- HP Partner Services – Hardware & Software
